

1

The undesirable state of the natural environment being damaged with harmful substances as a consequence of human activities.

2

To issue a ticket as a penalty.
The money asked to someone
as a punishment for doing something incorrect.

3

A slide of a large mass of dirt and rock down a mountain or cliff.

4

A destructive sea wave caused by an earthquake or volcanic eruption.

5

The area in which something exists or lives.

The surrounding conditions.

6

To use something again after processing.

フ

Air pollution caused by a mixture of smoke and fog.

The gases ejected from an engine as waste products.

9

To spend less.

To buy something at a reduced price.

To accumulate money usually for a future use.

10

A severe tropical cyclone usually with heavy rains and winds moving at a very high speed.

11

A low area that has been filled in with waste.

12

A substance that causes injury, illness or death of a living organism.

13

An increase in the average temperature of the earth's atmosphere (especially a sustained increase that causes climatic change).

14

An angry disturbance.

To annoy someone, to disturb (especially by minor irritations).

To take the trouble to do something.

15

To harm or injury someone or something, usually resulting from a violation of a legal right.

16

A community of organisms where each member is eaten in turn by another member.

17

Energy derived from sources that do not use up natural resources or harm the environment.

18

To keep in safety and protect from harm, decay, loss or destruction.

19

A particular environment or surrounding influence.

The mass of air surrounding the Earth.

The weather or climate at some place.

20

To fall apart.

To cause to fall or collapse.

21

Worthless material that is to be disposed of.

Materials unused and rejected as worthless or unwanted.

22

Warming that results when solar radiation is trapped by the atmosphere.

23

The branch of biology concerned with the relations between organisms and their environment.

24

To find the solution to (a problem or question) or understand the meaning of something.

To find the solution.

24

To act and have an impact upon someone or something.